Request for Assistance from BFV

1. Enclosed please find a photocopy of the front of an envelope, bearing the following address:

Addressed "Mr. Mrs. Alioja Krajewska
Warszawa. Putawska 128m 15
Polaka - Poland"
Poland

the original of which also bore postmark Hartford, Connecticut, November 19, 1956.

2. The original envelope was turned over to German Authorities (BFV) at House "H", Marienfelde Refugee Center, by the Subject on or about 13 December 1956. At that time Subject, a German National, was undergoing processing as a Political Repatriate, released from 11 years of prison confinement in Poland. Subsequent to this, Subject was referred to BOB via PBHASSOCK and when it was determined that we had operational interest in her, both PBHASSOCK and the local BFV Liaison Office were notified accordingly.

3. It would be appreciated if the original of this envelope could be recovered from BFV through your liaison at Bonn. When we inquired locally of the BFV through the LFV we were given a photocopy and advised that the original was not available, presumably it having been forwarded to Bonn. It is required in order to determine its authenticity, if possible.
